

Date: 27/02/09

Publication : www.tmcnet.com

Avesthagen appoints two new board members

Bangalore, Feb 25, 2009 (Asia Pulse Data Source via COMTEX) -- Avesthagen Limited, a knowledge- based life sciences company, today appointed two new members on its board of directors.

The new members on the board of the company are Professor N K Ganguly Advisor to Health Minister Ministry of Health and Family Welfare India and David Atkinson Managing Director of Twenty Two North, a seed industry veteran with over three decade of experience, the company said in a release.

On the appointment of the new members, Avesthagen Limited Founder and CMD Dr Viloo Morawala-Patell said, "The new members bring with them diversity of experience and opinions from which the company will benefit. Their guidance will provide direction to current research activities and help us in advancing